

BITTER/SWEET is a romantic comedy of two big-city career-hungry executives from two different worlds, who find out in the coffee plantations of exotic Thailand what really counts in love and life.

The movie is the tale of American coffee expert Brian Chandler, who seemingly has a “perfect” life, and Bangkok PR executive Ticha, who sacrifices her love life for a promising career. At the urging of her coffee farmer parents, she takes him to the coffee fields of Southern Krabi, reconciling with her past.
